PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly, Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of Iowa:
Sisters and Brothers:

I have reached the end of my year as your President. I have, as I promised, fulfilled my Office to the best of my ability. I've thoroughly enjoyed it. So many, many times "My Cup Runneth Over". Yes, there were some difficult times when the weather man made driving a bit frightening. God was with me at all times and now my thoughts are on the future, praying that this wonderful Fraternal Order will continue to gain in membership, and promote throughout the world, the three links of Rebekah Oddfellowship, "Friendship, Love and Truth".

We will in October be having our Rebekah Assembly. My theme this year and may it always be uppermost in each of your lives to "Enjoy Yourself" because it IS later than you think. I hope plans this year are to get our work done but to enjoy ourselves while doing it, at our assembly.

The following is my report for this past year as your President. I've had a very "Enjoyable Year".

God bless you everyone, God bless you is my prayer,
God bless and keep you in His loving care.

LETTERS WERE SENT TO ALL REBEKAH LODGES AND TO ALL DISTRICT DEPUTY PRESIDENTS OF REBEKAH LODGES.

GREETINGS

The following message was sent by the Assembly Secretary, Vivian Nelson, to the other jurisdictions:

Rebekah Assembly of Iowa
Greetings

Fraternal Greetings Sisters:

The Rebekah Assembly of our Hawkeye State of the Jurisdiction of Iowa, wish for you to "Enjoy Yourself" and have a memorable session.

May we share our emblem, "The Cup" of Love, Gratitude, Joy, Forgiveness, Kindness and Christian Faith with Relatives, Friends and Members in the name of Rebekah Odd-Fellowship. Our Motto is "Look to the Future, but respect the past."

With Sincerity,
Odetta Mason
711 Leonard Street
Sac City, Iowa 50583

Vivian Nelson
Assembly Secretary
R.R. 2, Clear Lake, Iowa 50583

PASSWORDS

I chose the term password of Rebekah Lodges with knowledge that we all can lead richer, fuller, happier lives if we share all things whether it is happiness or sadness or the need for courage or the need to serve others. Above all we must share our Christian Faith. I chose the password for the first 6 months for Theta Rho because there is a desperate need for this in the world today. Because Past President Marjorie Hefte gives to our youth so much of her help and time I, like other Past Presidents, gave her the privilege of choosing the Theta Rho password for the last six months. She, in turn, honored me with the choice she made and I love her for this. Thanks, Marjorie.

THETA RHO GIRL'S CLUBS

I had the distinct honor of having the "Cup of Love" Theta Rho Club of Shellsburg instituted during my term of office and it has been named in my honor. I have become a member of this club and plan to help them whenever I can. We pray that they'll have an enjoyable relationship. Sunsette Theta Rho of Britt held initiation at our Odd Fellow's home and they did so well. Our Superintendent's daughter was initiated as well as his wife. I've been able to see other clubs in their work and their fine drills. Thanks to our Youth Committee for their time and effort to aid these clubs. Springbrook camp finds many young people enjoying a few days together. Grand Master Glen Irwin and I were installing Officers for Des Moines Junior Lodge and Golden Rule Theta Rho Club.

UNITED NATION PILGRIMAGE FOR YOUTH

Having been co-director on this tour for the past two years, it was with mixed emotions that on July 22nd I went to Des Moines to wish the bus load of youth and their directors and bus driver a great trip. Directors this year were: Don Peterson, Chairman; Helen Milburn, Assembly Warden and Louise Galvin, Assembly Stenographer. Past President Hallie Posnecker of Des Moines spent the 6 weeks as assistant in New York for this Pilgrimage. May this worthwhile project never be discontinued.

PILGRIMAGE TO THE TOMB OF THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER

I have had many privileges this past year but none can surpass this honor bestowed upon me as the President of the Rebekah Assembly of Iowa. There just aren't words to adequately express my feelings as the Grand Master, Glen Irwin and I placed this wreath at the tomb of the unknown soldier. This is the only time that the guard at the tomb stops their vigil. That alone seems to put a lump in one's throat. Then these young men who represent all branches of our service are so precise and appreciative of what we do. How fortunate we are to be living in these United States. Let us always remember to love and respect our country.

HAWKEYE ODD FELLOW and CORRESPONDENCE

What an experience getting my official communication to the Hawkeye each month. I know it keeps lodges informed of important happenings and we thank Brother Berle and his helpers for getting this paper out each month. This is a nice gift to give to a shut-in if they are not already getting it. Send $1.25 to Berle Starr.

You'll never realize just what a word of cheer means to your President when you send those checks or other important items. It lifts the spirit and even brings a little tear of appreciation once in a while. Thanks, sisters. I've endeavored to answer you quickly and with the needed information.

CONVENTIONS

My, what an enjoyable time I have had with all of you. I'll miss these get-togethers. We did have many new members added at these conventions. Remember to ask your friends and relatives to join our Fraternal Order. They'll be glad they did. You have all been so generous with your many delightful surprises. I thank all of you for the luncheons, dinners, gifts, lodgings and love. You were very kind to my Officers who accompanied me from time to time. May this next year be an "Enjoyable One". We had many nice collections for our Home Fund. Thank you.

OMAHA RALLY

Iowa was well represented at this Rally. Seventeen members were taken in during the Rebekah Degree held there. Thanks to Nebraska for being fine hosts.

4 STATE

4 State was held this year in Cedar Rapids with Past President Edna Ward and Past Grand Master Delbert Gerholdt being chairpersons. The programs of all states were well presented. The drill pageant held many surprises for Grand Master Glen and I. We were overwhelmed at the creative ideas, many of which will be used at our Rebekah Assembly. Thanks for these drills and the money contributed to our Home Fund through the donations of two drill teams. What a thoughtful thing to do! More members should try and attend this annual affair which will be in Missouri next year.

OUR ODDFELLOW'S HOME

I have tried to encourage everyone to visit this home at Mason City to more deeply appreciate everything that you do for it. The residents receive tender, loving care from all who work there as well as from our Superintendent and family. Two of the best times to go are in the spring at the regular "Open House" or the second Sunday in July when we have our annual home's picnic. But, remember, you are welcome to visit at any other time if you are in the vicinity. I grant you that you'll go home trying to think of things you can do for our home. We are fortunate to have our Home Fund so that we can support the Home in so many ways.

Christmas this past year at the Home was most enjoyable. My husband and I really appreciated being with the Porters and some of their families, as well as being with Grand Master Glen Irwin and his sweet wife. The informality of being with them all at their home in the company of Pastor Harcy and his wife made it a great weekend. How fortunate we are to have Dick and Dorothy, and their family. The residents do love each of them; knowing them is to love them.

IN MEMORY

Each year there are many members who are no longer with us. The many tributes in their memory at our conventions are so fitting. Among those who have passed away this past year was Past President Doris Huffman Atkinson. We will miss her in our assembly.

"Somewhere back of the sunset,
Where loveliness never dies,
They live -- in a land --
With the blue and gold of the skies;
And we, who have known and loved them,
Whose passing has brought sad tears,
Will cherish their memory always
To brighten the drifting years."

STATE OF THE ORDER

As I think back on my visits with all the lodges I feel they wish to progress in the regular workings of the lodges and are endeavoring to keep their lodges active. It is difficult for some of our smaller groups but I must again state that these smaller lodges do so much good, and I am proud of them. Our Home in Mason City is the recipient of many boxes from these smaller lodges. Let us all pray for an increase in membership.

I am sorry to report that the following Charters have been picked up:

Willow Rebekah Lodge No. 598 of Troy Mills
Maple Rebekah Lodge No. 519 of Greeley
Heliotrope No. 366 of Brandon
LeClaire No. 124 of LeClaire

I hope the members of these lodges have transferred to another lodge near them or will keep their dues paid up in the Georgia Quigley Lodge No. 1 until they find themselves interested in another lodge near them. When a charter is picked up, the members are automatically placed in the state lodge.

189 lodges reported to me that they planned to vacation. I hope all will come back with new enthusiasm this fall.

GRATITUDE

To all Rebekahs in the State of Iowa:

This has been a year in my life that I will always be grateful for. It gave me a new insight as to the love our members show to their fellow man. It gave me the privilege of serving our Fraternal Order in the State of Iowa. I pray that I fulfilled my task in a way that you feel I was worthy of the office. Thanks to all of you for this privilege. I would like to express my gratitude to the following:

To my elective officers: Vivian and Muriel for assisting me in the absence of my advisor. With you by my side I felt much more confident. Mary and Helen I was always glad to see you in attendance. What a good feeling when all five of us were in tow.

To my appointive officers: I had special reasons for the choice I made. Thanks for accepting and making me proud of my choice.

To my committee chairman: I hope you have enjoyed working on the various committees and thanks for accepting the appointment. To Edna Lee, Chairman of the Board of Instruction, a big thanks for accompanying me a great deal and giving the Unwritten Work so beautifully.

To my advisor, LaVada: Thank you for the faith and encouragement I have received from you these past few years. We've had many trips together and shared many a good time. With you so far away this past year, we've carried on a heavy correspondence. Only I can know how much you've meant to me and I hope we can share many good times together in the future.

To my Assembly Mother: You gave me my very first appointment in our Rebekah Assembly and how proud I was to accept it. I've always loved you.

To Imogene Rebekah Lodge No. 259: Sac City: So many things I thank you for. For those who have traveled with me, my receptions, a lovely convention, all the help you've given me to help make this Assembly a successful one, for doing the Rebekah degree at Assembly and all the gifts, for our Past Noble Grands seating the Officers on the Opening Day, and for all the time you have given to do things to please me. I'm looking forward to our good times together on a regular basis.

To my Grand Master Glen Irwin: I will always be grateful that this association with you was made possible by my election this particular year. You are a credit to our Fraternal Order and I thank you for all the cooperation you have given me.

To W.C. my better half: I certainly thank you for allowing me to give this time to that which I love to do. Thanks for keeping wheels ready at all times and for being patient when I came home tired and impatient. Thank God for a companion who is so agreeable.

To my sons and their wives: I'm thankful for all the help you gave me in various capacities. And I'm looking forward to being available when my grandchildren request my assistance.

I'm indeed thankful to have met and enjoyed the friendship of so many loyal Rebekah sisters and brothers. I'd like to express my feelings in this bit of verse:

In my heart there rings a melody, there rings a melody of heaven's harmony.

In my heart there rings a melody, there rings a melody of love.

In Friendship, Love, and Truth

Odetta Mason, President
Rebekah Assembly of Iowa

Vice President's Report

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly, Brothers and Sisters of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in the State of Iowa:

Another great year of Rebekah-Odd Fellowship is drawing to a close. I am indeed most grateful for the opportunity to serve our Fraternal Order as your Vice President. I am sure my life has been greatly enriched by becoming acquainted with so many more sisters and brothers throughout the state of Iowa. So it is with a deep feeling of pleasure and a real honor that I submit the following report.

I attended as many receptions, installation ceremonies, district conventions, hospitality nights, and emblem presentations as was possible, as well as my own lodge meetings. I also attended open house at our I.O.O.F. home, the tri-state membership rally in Omaha, Grand Lodge Planning Committee in Des Moines, Joint installation of Junlor lodge and Theta Rho in Des Moines, Institution of Theta Rho in Shellsburg, trustee meeting at the home in Mason City, the Home Picnic in July.

Sister Odetta, our President called upon me to help her this past year when she was otherwise occupied in Official Duties elsewhere. I was most happy to officiate in her behalf at the District Convention held in Creston, April 25th. The Sisters were most kind to me and I enjoyed the day very much. Hopefully they too felt the day was well spent and that they received adequate instruction.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the Rebekahs of the State of Iowa for the privilege of serving this year as Vice President. It has been a most enjoyable year and I have enjoyed every meeting that has been my privilege to attend. Many courtesies have been extended to me this year for which I express my gratitude. May I continue to merit your love and respect.

Sister Odetta, our President: I have enjoyed working with you and am grateful for the privilege. Your splendid loyalty and sisterly love will warm my heart always and I'm sure your Cup has been filled.

To all other Assembly Officers and Past Presidents with whom it has been my privilege to associate, I wish to express my gratitude and to ask for your loyalty and co-operation during the coming year.

Sister Lylas, your words of encouragement and acts of kindness, I am most grateful for. Thank You.

But for the coming year I ask
The strength to do my daily task,
God grant that I may do my part
And show no bitterness of heart.
May I go forth from day to day
To service in a broader way
To give a smile or a word of cheer
Help to make this a happier year.

Warden's Report

A year has just become a beautiful memory and as I come to the end of my term as your Warden I wish to extend to each of you my humble and sincere thanks for the honor that you bestowed upon me, my Lodge and my District. My earnest prayer is that I will always be worthy of this honor. To my Lodge, "thanks" for your willingness to go along with my request for no reception, but more especially for your support, well wishes and for making so many trips with me. I have endeavored to fulfill the duties of this office to the very best of my ability, and trust that along the way I have helped to strengthen the bonds of Rebekah-Oddfellowship.

During the past year I have attended 17 District Conventions, Joint installation of Golden Rule Theta Rho and Hawkeye Jr. Lodges and assisted with the installation in July. Attended the installation of LAPM, Institution of "Cup of Love" Theta Rho Club, 3 State Membership Rally in Omaha, 4 State Conclave at Cedar Rapids. Several Hospitality Nights, presented a 25 year pin to a member at Bondurant, attended the 75th Anniversary celebration at West Des Moines, and the 100th Anniversary celebration at Monroe, Dedication of a Memorial Stone, a Christmas Party held for the Home, spent one evening at Camp Halada and during this period of time missed only 3 meetings of my own Lodge serving as Chaplain and Degree Captain.

It goes without saying that the month of July was indeed an outstanding month for me and it was my sincere pleasure to serve as co-host with Brother Otto Eckley for the Home Picnic, July 13th. We started early in the spring planning for this annual event and were delighted with the response and with the largest crowd ever recorded attending, with 510 registering. Registration was in the capable hands of the Grand Matriarch and her assistants. Members of the Grand Encampment parked the cars, the Patriarch Militants and Ladies Auxiliary Patriarch Militant were in charge of the Flag Raising. Sunday School was taught by DeLos Baker of Mason City, with his daughter Janice at the piano. The Chaplain for the Home, the Rev. Harcey gave us an inspiring morning service. Again, the Supt. of our Home and his wife were helpful, far beyond the call of duty, in making so many arrangements and taking care of so many details, thus relieving the Wardens of many extra trips to Mason City. THANKS, DICK AND DOROTHY. Through Dick's arrangements dinner was served by "Kentucky Fried Chicken" and after three trips back to their kitchen were able to serve those willing to wait.

Tickets were in charge of Past Presidents, Lylas Hayden and Muriel Galvin, and it was something to watch them "resell" tickets and still come out even in the end. The afternoon program started with Invocation by Brother Richard Porter, introduction of top Officers of each Branch of the Order, and all that were present were seated on the platform. All Elective Officers were introduced, Past Presidents and Past Grand Masters were requested to stand for recognition. Past Sov. Grand Master A. M. Black was introduced and invited to address the group. The newly elected Wardens, Wilbur Bingman and Jennie Allen were introduced as were the Porter family. The program was then turned over to Wilma Hanson, Activity Director for the Home and she presented several residents of the Home, who then entertained for us. A 20 minute program of "Ministry in Music" was given by Mrs. Priscilla Gray and her son, Robert of Carlisle. Six silver dollars were given as door prizes and the Digital Thermometer given by the Wardens was won by Muriel Galvin. Eddis Allen of Indianola was the winner of the quilt on which chances had been sold by a member of the Home.

Also a very important part of the month of July for me was being asked to serve as one of the Assistant Directors for the UN Pilgrimage. Am very grateful for this opportunity and the following quotation from a letter that I received from one of the young men on the bus tour expresses my sentiment quite simply, "I hope that the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Iowa will always continue this program, so that other young people may have the same opportunity that was given to me."

I gratefully acknowledge all courtesies and kindness extended to me, and am appreciative of the many invitations and gifts. I sincerely regret my inability to accept all invitations and I am hoping the ones that I missed the past year I can attend this coming year. To all that lost loved ones, I extend my sincere sympathy. To you, Sister Odetta, thanks for making me truly a part of your year.

God Bless you all for your kindness
Which you have given me
Your many acts of Friendship
Will long be in my memory.

Fraternally and with Love
Helen Milburn, Assembly Warden

Secretary's Report

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of Iowa:

In compliance with the provisions of the Rebekah Assembly Constitution, I present for your consideration and approval a report of all business transactions of the Secretary's office and a financial statement of all funds received and disbursed during the fiscal year, commencing August 1, 1974 and ending July 31, 1975. Also a statistical report of Theta Rho Girl's Clubs of Iowa.

Des Moines

This year our 88th annual session is again meeting in the city of Des Moines and we know from past sessions in this city that we will be warmly welcomed by the good Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Des Moines.

As we come together for this annual meeting let us enjoy ourselves and "Share the Cup" with our Sister Rebekahs and Brother Odd Fellows. As we meet and review the past may we also look to the future and make plans for a bigger and better year in Rebekah Odd Fellowship.

SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE AND INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REBEKAH ASSEMBLIES JOURNALS, JOURNALS FROM OTHER JURISDICTIONS, PER CAPITA TAX AND OTHER BUSINESS CONNECTED WITH THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE

The reports of the 1974 session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge which was held in Philadelphia were not received in my office therefore I had none to mail to the Officers and Lodges.

I have received journals from Sovereign Grand Lodge and the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies and they have been placed on file in the office, I have also received many journals from other Jurisdictions and have given them to the Rebekah Assembly Warden so she may make her Jurisdictional report at our session in October.

Fraternal Press

All Rebekah Lodges and Theta Rho Girls Clubs receive the Hawkeye Odd Fellow and the President's letter, News of our Homes and any other interesting items are to be read in open lodge.

Each lodge receives the International Rebekah News with many interesting items in, you are also to read the International Presidents letter published in this paper.

Greetings

Greetings have been sent to all jurisdictions in time for their annual sessions. You will find a copy of the greeting in the President's report.

Camp Halada

Theta Rho Girls Clubs and Junior Lodge Boys will again meet at Camp Halada for their annual camp, Sister Hallie Posnecker will again be camp Director and many Sister Rebekah and Brother Odd Fellows are planning on helping again this year.

This is a wonderful opportunity for our young people and as long as we do not have a State meeting for either group this is one way for them to review their work and become more proficient in their work.

Journals

The 1974 journals were edited by your Assembly Secretary, all copy was in the hands of the printer within thirty days after our annual session and was printed by the Emmetsburg Publishing Company. These journals were delivered by the company direct to my door the third week in February and all copy was sent according to Standing Resolution No. 15.

I A R A Guest

Early this summer I filled in the questionnaire received from the Vice President of the IARA asking who we would like to visit our session and to date I have not heard who will be our guest.

Correspondence

I have received many notes and letters this year along with the orders and reports which I truly enjoy even if I do not answer many of them. All mail that needs an answer I have tried to be prompt in answering as well as sending out supplies as soon as the order is received.

Communications

I have received letters concerning the World Eye Bank, Rose Bowl Float, Educational Fund, United Nations Pilgrimage, Drug Program and Extension Program.

PRESIDENT'S PROJECT

This year our Assembly President, Sister Odetta Mason with the help of her Rebekah Sisters printed a cook book with many favorite recipes from her Officers and the Past Presidents and during her year sold many of these books netting a nice sum of money for the General Fund of the Rebekah Assembly which was greatly appreciated.

VISITATIONS

It was my pleasure this spring to attend many of the Conventions and I truly enjoyed meeting my old friends and making many new friends. I wish to thank everyone for the many courtesies extended to me and hope I may attend many next year. I had many invitations to Installations and Hospitality Nights which I could not attend but I thank you for the invitation.

NECROLOGY

We were saddened at our session last year to receive the word of the death of one of our beloved Past Presidents, Sister Doris Huffman Atkinson, who passed away in Fergus Falls, Minnesota. Sister Doris served our Assembly as President 1943 and 1944 and was a very good and loyal worker for the Order. She was a member of Queen Rebekah Lodge of Mason City. Sister Doris was not able to attend the last two sessions but her thoughts were always with us and she sent greetings to be read in the Assembly.

To the families and loved ones of our departed Sisters and Brothers we extend sincere sympathy. May each find a comfort in our Heavenly Fathers promises "Come unto me all that are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest". Many have crossed over into this Heavenly Home and have found fulfillment of this promise.

Fast as the rolling seasons, brings
 The hour of fate to those we love,
 Each pearl that leaves the earthly chain
 Is set in friendship's crown above.
 As narrow grows the earthly chain
 The circle widens in the sky,
 These are our treasures that remain
 But those are our stars that beam on high.

CONCLUSION

My year has ended and I find it is hard to express in such a few words my gratitude that is in my heart but will say just a big "THANK YOU" for everything.

To Sister Odetta, it has been a pleasure working with you this year, you have given loving service as our leader and certainly have "Enjoyed the Cup" and have shared with others.

To Sister Mary and Helen, it will indeed be a pleasure to serve with you this coming year and I am ready at anytime to help make your load easier.

To Sister Muriel, for many years we have traveled the road of Fraternity together and sharing the joys and the sorrows, may we continue down friendship road for years to come, thanks Muriel for everything.

To my Lodge Secretaries may I say "Thanks and keep up the good work". I have enjoyed your personal notes along with your official letters and I am sorry I could not answer each one but time does not permit.

My thanks and appreciation to all the lodges for their cooperation and confidence, for without your help I cannot accomplish anything.

May we build and plan for the future,
Without hope of personal gain;
Bury all that is selfish within us
That our Order may achieve and attain.
Achieving that only which is worthy
Attained by labor and love;
Counting any sacrifice made as nothing,
If approved by our Father above.

Sincerely and fraternally,
Vivian Nelson, Secretary
Rebekah Assembly of Iowa

Treasurer's Report

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly, Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Iowa.

In compliance with the requirements of this office as Treasurer of the Rebekah Assembly of Iowa. I submit the following report of the financial condition of all funds in my possession.

The money of the Rebekah Assembly is deposited in the Community National Bank and Trust Company of Knoxville, Iowa. We have two checking accounts, a general fund and a Home Fund. Both accounts are insured up to $40,000. We have two savings accounts at the United Federal Savings and Loan of Des Moines, Iowa. One savings account at the Home Federal Savings and Loan Company in Des Moines, Iowa. The interest on the general fund savings account is paid quarterly and placed in the general fund checking account. The interest on the Home Fund is paid quarterly and left to accumulate. The Home Fund now stands at $11,147.78 and $8,736.72. We have one time certificate for the general fund and two time certificates for the Home Fund.

We have the past president's jewel of the late Irene Schultz. The past Treasurer's jewel of the late Alta Woodside. A Conductor and Marshall jewel, the old style officers jewels. All are kept in a lock box at the Community National Bank and Trust Company. Said box furnished to the Rebekah Assembly without cost. We have a metal box, one white Bible, receipt books, wand, velvet jewel carrier, number tags, check books, and other books and papers used in this office. We have three flags, American, Iowa and Canadian. Each a standard and staff.

Conclusion

In closing another years work, it has been a pleasure to have served the Rebekah's of Iowa. I enjoyed the many meetings I attended this year, and want to thank you for the many courtesies extended to me. Sister Odetta, I really have enjoyed working with you this year. Sister Mary, I'm looking forward to next year. My door is always open and I hope you will stop in. Sister Helen, words cannot express the many happy hours we spent traveling to many meetings. We might have been lost a time or two but we always made the meetings. Sister Vivian, we have worked together for several years, and I have enjoyed every day. The cooperation of the officers and members has made this a perfect year.

Sincerely and Fraternally,

Muriel Galvin, Treasurer
Rebekah Assembly of Iowa

Advisory Board Report

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly of Iowa:

In accordance with the requirements of the office of Chairman of the Advisory Board, I wish to submit the following report for the year 1974-1975, Lylas E. Haydon Chairman, Maxine Hackbarth Secretary and Edna Ward as the new member.

We have had three meetings this year namely December 6-7, 1974 this meeting Maxine Hackbarth was unable to attend; April 15-16 and August 12-13, 1975. The Trustees invited us to meet with them on July 14th as they planned the budget for 1976, Edna and myself attended this meeting which was interesting to see these dedicated members work together for the good of our Home Residents. Since Maxine Hackbarth was unable to be with us, due to being in the hospital, we postponed our Advisory Board meeting until such time she could be with us. Our April meeting we had the pleasure of having our President Odetta Mason and Secretary Vivian Nelson with us. All of the Elective Officers had been invited to this meeting as we believed they should know how the Advisory Board performs their work.

The mornings, the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Then we go over the lists of Pat Perkins, Matron and Mrs. Smith, Head Nurse. As these lists are looked over trying to decide what are the necessary items, Richard and Dorothy Porter would suggest the items most needed, and to comply with the request of the State.

Usually the afternoons are spent in shopping locally for such items as thermal blankets, cotton sheet blankets, dish cloths, table cloths, waste baskets and miscellaneous items needed in the kitchen. Then on the following morning, we again go over the lists, giving Richard Porter permission to order from Lintex Corp., Iowa Medical Supply Company or such supply companies for better prices. You may find the list of supplies purchased by the Advisory Board in the Treasurers report. The afternoon of the second day is spent in visiting the residents, which we enjoy and really feel as though we have accomplished something for their comfort and welfare.

It is always a pleasure to work with Richard and Dorothy Porter and enjoy their hospitality and friendship. To Maxine and Edna, it has been a pleasure to work with you this year and may we keep our hearts united in the bonds of Friendship, Love and Truth.

Fraternally submitted,

Lylas E. Haydon, Chairman
Maxine Hackbarth, Secretary
Edna Ward, Member

Joint Youth Committee Report

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly of Iowa:

The Joint Jurisdictional Youth Committee met for their organizational meeting at the Grand Lodge office in Des Moines on Saturday, December 7, 1974. The following officers were elected: Chairman, Marjorie Hefte; Co-Chairman, Delbert Gerholdt; Secretary, Hazel Lyons and Camp Director, Hallie Posnecker. Plans were made for the years activities which included cooperating with the Youth Program at 4 State Conclave instead of planning a youth rally for this year, planning to continue the youth news in the Hawkeye Odd Fellow magazine instead of the communications by officers, the approval of fees and dates for Camp Halada and the assignment of committee members for official visits to Junior Lodges and Theta Rho Clubs.

A brief review of our existing youth groups listed active Theta Rho Clubs in Iowa City, Des Moines, Britt, Indianola, Red Oak, Council Bluffs, Glenwood and Adel. The Club at Carlisle was still inactive and it was decided to give them one more year to try to reactive before we ask to have their charter surrendered. Active Junior lodges were reported at Des Moines, Glenwood, Council Bluffs and Adel. The Junior lodges in West Des Moines, Knoxville, Iowa City and Red Oak were listed as inactive. Since it had been some time since West Des Moines and Knoxville had been active and since we had received no response from the sponsoring lodges we decided to have their charters picked up. This has been done. Red Oak and Iowa City are to be given more time to try to reactivate.

On Sunday afternoon June 22nd we were pleased to institute a Theta Rho Club in Shellsburg. Golden Rule Theta Rho Club of Des Moines did an outstanding job of initiating 20 girls and 11 Rebekah sisters who were then instituted by Assembly President Odetta Mason as Cup of Love Theta Rho Club No. 41. The officers were installed by Marjorie Hefte assisted by Marlys Hefte, Hazel Lyons, and Maxine Hackbarth. There was an excellent attendance of both Grand Lodge and Assembly officers as well as local Rebekahs and townfolks. We were extremely pleased with the interest shown by all.

Although we have had requests for information on organizing new youth groups from Odd Fellow lodges in Sperry, La Porte City, Cedar Rapids and New London and from Rebekah lodges in New London and Cedar Rapids, we have received no report of any action taken as of August 10th. We are still hoping however that we will be instituting more clubs in the near future.

Our Youth gave us reason to be proud of them again at the 4 State Conclave. Sunshine Theta Rho Club of Adel opened and closed the meeting for the afternoon in an excellent manner and the Theta Rho degree was conferred on 2 members in a beautiful ceremony by Hopeful Hearts Theta Rho Club of Glenwood. Hawkeye Junior Lodge of Des Moines conducted a meeting and initiated 4 Junior lodge members. In the evening the drill teams from Starlite Theta Rho Club of Indianola and from Hopeful Hearts Theta Rho Club of Glenwood were a credit to our jurisdiction with their attractive appearance and well executed drills.

Camp Halada was held at Springbrook Park near Guthrie Center from August 3 to 9th under the very capable directorship of Hallie Posnecker assisted by youth committee members Delbert Gerholdt and Marjorie Hefte. Hazel Lyons was able to help Sunday evening and Thursday morning. Donald Westcott and Lon Swihart were not present. Serving very efficiently as counselors were Karen Ryerson, Britt; Joyce Ballard, Bernice Longerbone, and Harry Lyons, Des Moines; Kathy Bickel and Arthur Marston, Glenwood; Mace Piat, Adel; and Ivan Allen, Indianola. Craft assistants were Elizabeth Lyons and Margret Hurley of Des Moines and Vivian Nelson, Clear Lake. Marion Robinson, the only person who is a paid employee at camp, was the head cook. Working very hard with her to prepare excellent meals for us was Lylas Hayden, Des Moines and Eddis Allen, Indianola, and each day several volunteer Rebekahs from the lodges in Bagley, Menlo, Guthrie Center and Stuart. Edna Ward, Norway was in charge of the dining room and also assisted in the kitchen. The services of all these people are invaluable. We did enjoy the delicious meals. This year for the first time we applied for surplus commodities and received peanut butter, cheese, powdered milk and canned beef. Fresh tomatoes were donated by Bernice Longerbone, green beans and cucumbers by the Gene Clarks and cookies by Odetta Mason, all of which helped to hold down the camp food expense.

Thirty girls and 16 boys participated in the camp program of club and junior lodge work, crafts, sports, swimming, stunts, games and exercising to music. Several new craft ideas that proved popular were painting plaques, making jewelry, stuffing snakes made from discarded neckties and fuzzy wuzzy trinket jars. Monday night's camp olympics, which is competitive games between the activities groups and Tuesday night's study program presented by the various cabin groups were thoroughly enjoyed by all. A new record player financed jointly by the Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly added to the enjoyment of the exercising and dancing that concluded each evening.

At the Wednesday night program reports were given by the Clubs and Junior Lodges of their year's activities and service projects. The Iowa Youth Committee New Member traveling trophy was awarded to Golden Rule Theta Rho Club of Des Moines for initiating 14 new members and reinstating 1 in 1974. The closing camp ceremony was presented very impressively by a representative from each club present bringing to a close another successful camp session. We are extremely grateful to all who gave so much of their time and energy to make it so. We also want to express appreciation to all lodges who donated to the Theta Rho Recreation fund and to the Grand Lodge for their part in financing the camp. The $7.00 camp fee does not begin to cover the costs so we do appreciate your help in covering the deficit.

One of the girls, in concluding her club report, made the statement, "We may not be the best, but we do our best." The same statement may be applied to the work of this committee. Although we have been criticized we know and sometimes unjustly accused of doing things illegally we assure you we are trying our very best to cooperate with and assist our existing clubs and their Advisors, to work with lodges in promoting the institution of additional youth groups, and to improve all youth activities. No one can ask more than our best. We do need the active support of all sisters and brothers if we are to continue to improve our youth work. Especially do we need more adult cooperation with our camp. We feel that no effort is too great or too small if it encourages youth to better themselves and their club clubwork. All that we do for our youth today will improve our lodges and our world for tomorrow.

United Nations Pilgrimage Committee Report

To the officers and members of the Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly of Iowa:

The U.N. Pilgrimage Committee consisting of Elaine Tomlin Chairman; Don Peterson Co-Chairman; Jeanene Glascock member and Kenneth Hayes member, had our first meeting in Cedar Rapids at our Grand Lodge Session. We discussed the program for the year ahead and set our goal at 38 delegates. We went four beyond our goal with a total of 42 delegates. Our tour director this year was Don Peterson with Helen Milburn and Louise Galvin as co-directors. The sight seeing along the way does not change a great amount from year to year. The week spent at the United Nations is the highlight of the trip. This week is real educational.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Des Moines Lodges for serving the send off breakfast and there hall for a waiting place for the returning bus. Also the Lodges across the state which fed and housed bus loads from other jurisdictions. Without this kind of cooperation from lodges and their members this project would not succeed.

Delegates participating this year were Judy Whitnay, Janesville; Diane Hahn and John Ballensky Sigourney; Diane Wagner, Coon Rapids; Rodney Lange, Fonda; Richard Hodson, Indianola; Mary Piper, Bloomfield; James Clow, Davenport; Kim Sickels and Marianne Miller, Des Moines; Lori Schumann, Albert City; Joan Olney and Nancy Christenson, Marathon; Julie Woodford, Laurens; Tom Porter, Sioux Rapids; Bruce Stone and Sheryle Pagium, Marathon; Janet Swihart, and Linda Eldridge, Desota; Susan Sande, Adel; James Johnson, Decorah; Louann Mayberry, Glenwood; Brenda Hokel, West Union; Lynette Barrette, Council Bluffs; Sharon Broer, Iowa Falls; Julia Rastetter, Aldin; Judy Peters, Sac City; Debbie Rasch, Robert Jenson, Rachel Schnell and Milinda Edwards, Newell; John Toale and Lora Boge, Independence; Paul Neher, Grundy Center; Cynthia Voyles, New London; Lisa McCullough and Michelle Galloway, Sac City; Janis Haughtaling and Debbie Clatt, Indianola; Dennis Zabel, Galva; Gary Fish, Holstein; Dennis Sorensen, Galva.

I would like to ask the lodges to be thinking of delegates for 1976. Start now and get your money in early. This is very important to your committee chairman. Without this the chairman cannot complete arrangements for the tour.

My personal thanks for the fine cooperation from the Rebekah and IOOF Lodges and to Don, Helen and Louise for going on the tour with the delegates. This was all appreciated.

All correspondence and information should be directed to your new chairman for 1976, Don Peterson, Newell, Iowa. Let's all get behind this project again next year and make it bigger and better in 1976. Working together we can show our faith and extend our Fraternal love to the youth, our members of the future.

Thank you for the privilege of serving in this capacity.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODDFELLOWS of the STATE of IOWA

Convened at Des Moines, Iowa, October 7, 1975

The Special Session of the Rebekah Assembly Independent Order of Oddfellows of the State of Iowa was called to order by President Odetta Mason at 2:30 P.M. in the Terrace Room of the Hotel Savery.

LaVada Petersen, Past President and Advisor, presented the gavel to President Odetta. It was the same gavel that Sister LaVada had used when she served as Noble Grand of her local lodge and it traveled many miles with her when she was President of the Assembly.

The officers assumed their stations and the password was taken by Donna Deal, Marshal; Vera McCollum, Conductor; and their assistants, Mary Hoon and Doris Heidelbauer. All present were qualified to remain.

The Color Bearer, Marshal, Conductor and Assistant retired and presented the American and Canadian flags. The pledge was given followed by one verse of the "National Anthem". Mary Hoon, soloist, sang "O Canada".

ROLL CALL of OFFICERS

The roll call of officers was taken by the Secretary, but the roll call of delegates was delayed until the Warden presented her first class. The Chaplain, Verda Irwin, approached the Throne of Grace as Mary Hoon and LaVada Petersen sang, "Open my Eyes".

CHARTER DISPLAYED and SESSION OPENED

The Charter of the Rebekah Assembly was displayed by Vivian Nelson, secretary, legalizing all business brought before it. She then explained the purpose of the Special Session — to confer the Assembly

Degree on new delegates and Past Noble Grands and as a School of Instruction.

President Odetta Mason requested Mary Perry, Vice President, to declare the Special Session open for the transaction of all business for which it was called. The President declared it opened accordingly.

CREDENTIAL COMMITTEE REPORT

Jennie Allen, Chairman of Credential Committee, gave Report No. 1. She moved the adoption of her report. It was seconded by Pauline Manfull, Delegate of District No. 86. Motion carried.

WARDEN and CLASS

The Marshal and Conductor retired and presented Helen Milburn, Warden, and class. Sister Helen was escorted to the president's station. She asked Sister Odetta to hold the Bible for the class. Even though they could form no cup, she was dedicating this class to President Odetta and she was sure her cup was full and overflowing with joy. The Bible used for this obligation was from Sister Helen's home lodge, Rhodema No. 21 of Carlisle. It was presented to the lodge in April, 1972, in honor of Edith Davis by her husband, Oscar.

Sister Helen gave the Assembly Degree in a beautiful manner. She moved the adoption of her report which was seconded by Mabel Naylor, of District No. 6. Motion carried.

Warden Report No. 1—

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly I.O.O.F. of Iowa:

I have instructed 22 new delegates and 11 Past Noble Grands in the Rebekah Assembly Degree and they are entitled to be seated in this Assembly.

GREETING and DELEGATE ROLL CALL

President Odetta welcomed the new delegates and the roll call of Delegates was taken by the Secretary who reported 80 delegates present.

SCHOOL of INSTRUCTION

A School of Instruction was then given by the Assembly Officers. President Odetta asked all Delegates to be sure to have a current commission in the Unwritten Work. She also stated that lodges desiring to change their by-laws changing the night of their meetings should do so long enough before election of Assembly Officers so that the Secretary and President can be notified. The date on the returns is very important in determining if votes can be counted. All districts should elect a delegate when it is their turn to elect. Vacancies can be appointed if someone has to resign.

Lodges entertaining conventions were asked to request dates early and then try to keep the date. Changes sometimes causes much extra driving by the President. Please state whether your convention is all day, just afternoon or evening. New presidents don't always remember what the different conventions do.

All checks should be marked with the district number and the fund to which they are to be credited.

Since postage is rising, do not send the ballots when voting for assembly officers. Just send the results and be sure all spaces are completed.

Mary Perry, Vice President, asked that the full address of the Delegates be enclosed so their mail will be sure to reach them. Secretaries please be careful in sending back ballot results. Many delegate votes were not counted because the forms were not filled out properly and completely. Do not elect an alternate. The President fills all vacancies. When sending in nominations for District Deputy Presidents, be sure to enclose her lodge name and number as well as the district.

Secretary Vivian Nelson said her instructions were the same old story. Be sure mail goes to the proper place to save postage. All Home Fund collections must go to the President. Fill out all blanks when returning reports. Pay the amount per member that is stamped on the outside of the report. Several lodges have requested constitutions. She is trying to get some more printed. Secretaries, be sure to put the proper meeting date for your lodge meetings when returning Semi-annual reports. These dates are what is printed in the Assembly Journal.

Muriel Galvin, Treasurer, said her only comment was for delegates to be sure to cash their checks promptly so she can complete her book work.

President Odetta reported that Past President Helen Nelson was not able to attend the Assembly this year. Sister Vivian Nelson read a telegram from Leone Stokka, Past President and Past Assembly Secretary.

CLOSING

Verda Irwin, Chaplain approached the Throne of Grace as "Open My Eyes" was sung. President Odetta asked Vice President to declare the Special Session closed. President declared it closed accordingly until 8:30 Wednesday morning.

Sincerely and fraternally.

Vivian Nelson

We are also glad to know all the things that are done within our Order and to assist the Odd Fellows like we have all done. My thanks to all the Community Service Chairmen that have sent in reports.

Sister Odetta I have 'Enjoyed' my year on this committee and I am glad I could 'Share' these things with all the lodges. We, the committee, wish you the best of everything in the future and may all your days be enjoyed and shared with many.

JURISDICTIONAL REPORT

Helen Milburn, Assembly Warden, gave her Jurisdictional Report and moved the adoption of same. Seconded by Phyllis Christenson of District No. 83. Motion carried.

Report—

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly of Iowa:

During the past year, as Warden, I have read and analyzed 43 journals from that number of Jurisdictions and in addition the journal for the I.A.R.A.

All jurisdictions are, of course, striving to uphold the purposes for which this order was established, to obtain members and to maintain present membership, and while all have the same objectives in mind, it is interesting to note the different approaches taken to achieve the same end results. Rather than to make reference to each Jurisdiction individually, I have chosen to merely enumerate in the following manner the things I found of interest, or those which differ from our Assembly.

In many Assemblies the District Deputy Presidents conduct the District Meetings, or Schools of Instruction, and the President of the Assembly attends only as a guest. District Deputies must make a full report of their activities to the Assembly and such reports are recorded in the Journal. At least two Assemblies set up an outline for the program for a District Meeting or School of Instruction. Other Assemblies permit any Rebekah in good standing to attend the sessions, and this is achieved by opening in the Rebekah Assembly Degree and then reverting to just the Rebekah Degree. One Assembly has a student nurses program and during the past year awarded $200 scholarships to 17 girls and 1 boy. Other Assemblies have a fund to assist in sending delegates to the U.N. and also require a U.N. Delegate to make a personal report to them.

The majority of the Assemblies provide for a I.A.R.A. Honor Roll. In most instances the requirement for this is printed on the inside cover of the journal. Also, on this same inside cover for many is the statement that the lodge secretary is required to read a portion of the Minutes of the Assembly at each meeting night, so that all members may know the business transacted.

Benevolent Funds have been established, Joint Installation of the Assembly and Grand Lodge Officers held, books of the Secretary and Treasurer audited at least every three years by a Certified Public Accountant. Some Jurisdictions have a "Committee on Returns" that examines the Annual Reports submitted by local secretaries to the Assembly Secretary.

One Assembly has an Assembly Instructor, one a Rating Sheet for rating Officers and proficiency of lodges and a committee makes a report to the Assembly. Another, has a committee that reviews the President's correspondence and the manner in which it is handled and answered and reports to the Assembly. A Ways and Means Committee to raise money for the Assembly under the direct supervision of the Warden has been established, and an Installing Staff made up of Assembly Officers installs several lodges. Another has an Assembly Drill Staff and a Publicity Committee. Several have Question and Answer time at Assembly directed by the President. In some areas the Assembly Degree is given at meetings other than the general Assembly, and is given at various meetings by the Assembly Warden and Assembly President.

One Assembly gives Life Certificates to any member who has received a certificate for the Unwritten work for 10 consecutive years. To receive such certificate request for and proof of must be sent to the Assembly President. In one Assembly the Assembly Chaplain sends cards to all bereaved families and then makes the report of this at the Annual Assembly Session. It is noted that in many Jurisdictions the Appointive Officers of the Assembly are responsible for many duties during the year, and along with Elective Officers are frequently requested to make Official Visits for the President.

Several Jurisdictions have the same problem as Iowa regarding installations during the early winter months and would like to see this changed.

In many cases the State is divided into thirds, with the President, Vice President, and Warden being assigned one area for visitation and other Official business and this is on a rotating basis. In this manner, by the time the Warden becomes President she will have been in each area, and thus each lodge is privileged and assured of having an elective officer visit them at some time.

While I feel the reading of the various journals has merit and is helpful to a Warden, and that this practice should be continued, I seriously doubt that the material compiled each year varies enough or is of enough interest to others to continue the printing of the report in the Journal. Thus, it is my recommendation that consideration be given to eliminating the printing of this report in the Journal, especially in view of the increasing cost of printing.

Respectfully and Fraternally submitted,
Helen Milburn, Assembly Warden

LEGISLATION REPORTS

Maxine Lowe, Chairman of Legislation Committee, gave Report No. 1 and moved for its adoption. Seconded by Lucille Dobney of District No. 37. Motion carried.

Legislation Report No. 1—

To the officers and members of the Rebekah Assembly I.O.O.F. of Iowa:

We have received the following letter:

As you know, the Oddfellows allow to be printed in the Hawkeye a picture and brief biography of each candidate for Warden. The Rebekah Assembly has never voted to do so and there are several of us who have been talking and feel that maybe this would be a good idea since so many of the Past Noble Grands who vote for the Assembly Officers do not attend the Assembly Session and really do not know for whom they are voting. Therefore I propose the following resolution:

Be it resolved that all candidates for the office of Warden of the Rebekah Assembly be permitted to have printed in the Hawkeye Oddfellow a picture and a brief resume of their qualifications for that office and that each Lodge Secretary shall read in open Lodge the night the election is held, these resumes so that each and every Past Noble Grand shall have some knowledge of the qualifications of these candidates and will therefore be able to vote for the one they feel is best qualified.

Respectively submitted,
Alice Bricker, PNG

Sovereign Grand Warden's speech—

"We should be concerned with the future but truly respect the past as we have one of the oldest Fraternity's. We must look to the Past to learn what we have done and how we should govern our future. We must study the present and adapt ourselves to the present time, what we did fifty years ago does not work today.

"Things have changed so much we must gear ourselves to meet these changes. We must develop new Areas, new planning for the future, plan what we want to do and how long it will take. Plan a program and take it one step at a time, make it simple and workable.

"Remember, we have so many things we need to do and time is so short."

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly of Iowa:

I arrived in Portland, Oregon, on Friday afternoon, September 12, and checked in at the Congress Hotel. On Saturday I attended the Youth meetings, morning, afternoon and evening. The youth gave a very fine program.

At 2:00 P.M. Sunday afternoon Muriel Stroud, Secretary of Maritime Provinces and President of the Secretary's Association held open house in the Hilton Hotel for all Secretaries, this is the time when the dues are paid for the coming year, the Secretaries program distributed and the introduction of the new Secretaries.

I attended I.A.R.A. meetings every morning Monday through Friday and all Secretaries meetings which were held one hour after the close of the I.A.R.A. sessions.

On Wednesday morning was our Secretaries Breakfast and the revealing of our Secret Pals. Wednesday noon was our Grand Secretary's, Grand Scribes and Assembly Secretary's luncheon. Brother A. Ford Winters, Sovereign Grand Secretary, spoke to us on phases of our work which is always helpful. Sister Evelyn LaOrange, I.A.R.A. Secretary visited our session on Wednesday afternoon and spoke to us on reports and many other things pertaining to Assembly Secretary work.

Installation of officers for the Secretary's Association was held Thursday afternoon with Pearl Brent of California as Installing Officer.

I also attended the Grand Decoration of Chivalry on Tuesday night and witnessed our own Department Commander, Major General H. E. Clark receive this Decoration. Wednesday evening was the Installation of officers of both branches and one of the finest I have ever seen. Thursday evening they had a program in the ballroom of the Hilton followed by a dance.

Thank you Sisters of my Assembly for sending me to the sessions, I hope the benefit I derive from these meetings and the Association with the other secretaries proves helpful to all.

Report—

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Iowa:

We, the Board of Trustees of the Iowa Odd Fellow and Orphans Home, submit to you this brief report. You will have a complete report printed in your Journal, and we hope each of you will read it thoroughly and encourage others to read it to learn more about the operation of the Home.

There is explained the proper procedure of application and requirements to enter the Home. Or you might be interested in an apartment, and want to place application for one.

You will find the budget, also the source of our income to support the Home and how it is spent. All donations and bequests are greatly appreciated whether large or small. May we suggest when making a gift to give it direct to the "Iowa Odd Fellow and Orphans Home" and you may designate what you would like to have done with it, such as equipment, repair, room furnishing, etc. We strive to spend the money wisely to provide the best care possible for the residents.

As you have heard through the year, there are many inspections which reveal the Federal and State specifications to be a Licensed Home for Custodial and Nursing Care. I would like to mention some of these and some repairs that have been done.

89 Solid Core Fire Doors on room on third floor and second South.

Fire resistant drapes.

Floor coverings on third floor.

Nurses call system including drop ceiling and improved lighting on second floor.

Sand and re-seal kitchen tables.

Kitchen floor covering.

Hand rails on South second.

Hand rails on stairway.

Storage space improved of wheel chairs, laundry etc.

Improved lighting east of elevator on first floor.

Radiators to be covered and not exposed to residents.

Eve trough and down spout on south side of apartment building.

Repair of sidewalk at northeast corner of resident building.

Repair of court yard wall.

Old boiler house removed.

We are happy and thankful at this time to report the necessary funds are being provided to make these improvements. We hope to soon be able to improve the bathrooms in the residents building. Again may we say thanks to each who has contributed to the upkeep of our Home. Visit and see these improvements for yourself.

The Open House will be Saturday, March 13, 1976, and don't forget the Home Picnic Sunday, July 11, 1976.

We express appreciation to the employees at the Home, to our Superintendent, Matron, Secretary, Nurses and their Aides, in fact each and every employee. Each one is needed to make a Home and not an institution. The residents love Brother Richard, Sister Dorothy and family who serve in such a dedicated way. They always have time to pause to help or comfort anyone.

I am sure Sister Marjorie and I can say it has been a pleasure to serve with Brothers Wilford Ward, Tom McCoy and Sam Cuvelier this year. Our meetings each month are conducted in a business like manner. All business is discussed and considered and then voted on by each member. We hope we have improved the facilities and care so that all residing at our Home might be happier and more contented.

Fraternally submitted,

Wilford Ward, P.G.M., Tom McCoy, P.G.P.,
Sam Cuvelier, P.G.M., Marjorie Hefte, P.P. and Alice Clark, P.G.M.

As this was the tenth year the Porters have been Superintendent and Matron, Sister Dorothy presented Odetta a tin cup, stating that they are almost a thing of the past. She reported that activity is the keyword at the home. All residents are encouraged to exercise with simple rhymes before meals. There is much need for support pillows, pillows for wheelchairs, and supplies to be used in the craft department. Christmas gifts and wrapping supplies are needed every year.

Brother Richard reported that ten years ago the main purpose of the Home was to see that the residents were clean and fed. Now their main concern is motivation, rehabilitation and activity. They urge everyone to keep busy. He reported that the Trustees now serve as a Review Committee and they visit the residents during their meeting at the Home.

Brother Tom McCoy thanked the Rebekahs for the collections sent to the Home from the President's program.

PRESENTATION

Ivon Buehler, Memory Book Chairman, presented President Odetta an autograph book signed by the officers and committees.

MEMORIAL

As it was 4:00 P.M., Doris Cuvelier and her committee presented the memorial for one Past President, Doris Atchinson, and the deceased members of the order.

Program Of International President
HAZEL LOU WALLACE, Shreveport, Louisiana

SOVEREIGN GRAND MASTER

Sister Wallace and Brother Moore have planned their program around the Bicentennial Theme. They hope every Rebekah and Odd Fellow Lodge will in some manner celebrate our 200th birthday by expressing appreciation for living in this wonderful country, with some type of service to their community.

Emblem: Liberty Bells with Maple leaves joined in Rebekah Odd-fellowship (stressing the closeness of our relationship with our Canadian brothers and sisters)

Slogan: Seeking New Horizons

Colors: Pink and Green, and White, Blue and Red.

Hymns: Look For the Beautiful

How Great Thou Art

All His Children

Included in their program are hopes for an active jurisdictional expansion and development committee whose duties will be expanded this year as this is a very valuable tool in getting promotional material from the Sovereign Grand Lodge level down to our local lodges and committees.

T. E. Wallace, husband of Sister Wallace and a Past Grand Master of the Jurisdiction of Louisiana, was introduced by Past President Marjorie Hefte and given the Honors.

VISITATION

The Past Presidents then retired and introduced A. M. Black, Chairman of the Endowment Fund, and his committee, Loren Wymore and Chester Gibson. Brother Black gave his report.

PRESIDENT'S FINAL REMARKS

Final Farewell

Now my year and my "Enjoy Yourself" Session ends. I've tried "To Take Just One Day At a Time." You have all been faithful, helpful and kind as I have endeavored to be a faithful, helpful and kind President this past year. I thank each one who has made it possible for "My Cup to Runneth Over". - - - -

The book of my year is ended
Its pages more precious than gold
Are full of familiar faces
Of friends, both the new and the old
If I have accomplished but little
My efforts were true and sincere
And this is why I sigh as I'm closing
The book of my enjoyable year.

Odetta Mason, President 1974-1975

Marian Slocum and Pauline Sterling, sisters of President Mary, held the Bible for the Obligation. Marilyn Brackney, daughter, pinned the Jewel on her Mother, who was then escorted to the President's station. The Past Presidents pinned the jewels on the officers and then escorted them to their stations.

Odetta Mason presented the gavel to the new President. Louise Allen, Installing Chaplain, gave the Divine Blessing.

LaVada Petersen presented the Past President's pin to Sister Odetta.

Jewel Presentation

Sister Odetta

As Past President Edna has said "Now is the Time". You have had a full year as President of the Rebekah Assembly of Iowa. No doubt you have not fulfilled all your dreams and wishes and no doubt you have had a lot of disappointments but I am sure the good times far outweigh the bad. You are now qualified to wear this Jewel signifying you are now a Past President. I know you will wear it proudly as all Past Presidents before you have done. It is with great pride that I now hand this Jewel to your daughter-in-law to pin for you. Lots of Love goes with it and now you can truthfully say "My Cup Runneth Over."

Acceptance Of Jewel

Is it possible my year as President of the Rebekah Assembly has come and gone? While in progress the time did not seem to go so quickly. I accept this Past President's Jewel with great pride. As I wear it, I will always respect and honor our Rebekah Degree with its outstanding principles.

LaVada, you have been a great friend to add to my life. You gave me the courage to assume this responsibility and then, the kind comments from time to time, helped me to keep on keeping on. I'll treasure always this day when you have presented me with this jewel.

Sister Kay, my daughter-in-law, I thank you for all the time and effort you have given to me to help me in my progress to this day. I can think of no one else that I feel I'd like this honor of pinning my jewel given to. Even if Cleo could have been here today he would feel just as I do.

And now, Mary, I relinquish the presidency to you. May this be one of the most rewarding years you have ever had.

Now is the time of endings, but of new beginnings, too,
God sends us another year and maketh all things new.

And now I, too, have the privilege of joining the Past Presidents in their circle of love.

Odetta

Odetta, escorted by LaVada Petersen, was taken to the circle of Past Presidents as Mary Hoon sang "My Cup Runneth Over". The Past Presidents joined hands and sang "Blest Be the Tie that Binds".

Emma Franklin, Marshal, escorted Lylas Haydon to the center of the floor where she was introduced as the President's Advisor. She was then seated at the President's right.

The Committee Chairmen were then escorted into the room and introduced:

President Mary gave her acceptance speech. She asked the delegates to be her "Doves of Peace".

President's Acceptance Speech

Distinguished Guests, Officers, all Members, Friends and Families:

I humbly stand here before you today, at somewhat of a loss for words; knowing full well the obligation I have just taken, is one of the most solemn I will ever take.

The Official Rebekah Assembly family and I, this day have now accepted this tremendous responsibility, and will strive to the best of our ability to fulfill the honor you have bestowed upon us, by doing what is best for all members of our great fraternal order.

My thanks to sister Bertha and Lucille, and all the Past Presidents for this beautiful Installation Ceremony, and I am sure this will be a memory that I will always cherish.

To sister Odetta, my congratulations on the splendid work of Rebekahship which you have exhibited. It has been my pleasure to work with you and I shall cherish the many happy memories which we have shared. It is indeed an honor to receive this gavel from you, and I hope that I may perform the duties of this office in the same efficient manner, in which you have. Thank you for your genuine friendship.

To the Past Presidents, you are my Star Spangled Spirits; your vast knowledge and experience has made you invaluable to our assembly, and I know I shall call upon you many times for counseling and advice.

To the elective officers, It has been a privilege working with you. Now I ask your assistance that we may keep the Eternal Flame of Rebekahship burning brightly, as we labor in love and understanding for the good of our great Order. Sister Jennie, we welcome you to our executive family. To my appointive officers, committee chairman, you are my spirit of service ever reminding us of our obligations to our God, Our Country, and to Our Fraternal Order.

And to all Past Presidents and Past Grand Masters who have accepted the various duties, I thank you.

To all delegates and district Deputy Presidents, you are my Doves of Peace. You have been chosen by your districts to be my representative; may we strive together to increase membership, support our home and youth projects, and help to promote and strengthen social and fraternal relationship between Oddfellows and Rebekahs. For it is only by working together that all lodges of the order will become stronger and preserve Our Heritage.

I want to thank all who came from my own lodge as well as those who came from my district for this Installation today, and i say thanks to each and everyone who has taken the time to be with us today.

To Sister Lylas, My Advisors, for your words of encouragement and acts of kindness, I am most grateful. To all members, sisters and brothers, we have a long road ahead of us; and it's only by complete cooperation that we can reach our goal of total harmony and understanding between members and lodges. I am asking that you encourage new members to join, especially young people; retain the members we now have and reinstate members who have dropped. Let us build a better tomorrow through Rebekah, Odd Fellowship by remembering our obligation and living up to it.

It's not what we have, but what we use
Not what we see, but what we choose;
Not what seems fare, but what is true,
Not what we dream, but what we do;
Not what we take, but what we give
Not as we pray; but as we live;
These are the things that mar or bless,
The sum of human happiness

Marshal Emma Franklin then presented Beulah Hanson and introduced her as the President's Assembly Mother.

Sister Edith Scott and the girls from Mary's home lodge formed a semi-circle in the middle of the room. They gave a cute reading on the flag and the meaning of the colors. Mary was presented a flag gift from her lodge.

Ida Blackman, Conductor, escorted Hazel Lou Wallace, International President, and Corwin Havil, Sovereign Grand Warden, to the center of the floor where they were introduced and given a welcome by President Mary. Both of them spoke briefly and wished for Sister Mary a very good year.

Margaret McCoy, Past President, presented Helen Milburn a Love Gift from her home lodge, Rhodema No. 21 of Carlisle.

FAMILIES INTRODUCED

Mary Perry, President, introduced her daughter, Marilyn Brackney of Oskaloosa; her sisters, Marian Slocum of Illinois and Pauline Sterling of Knoxville; and some nieces and nephews. She stated that her husband was ill and unable to be there.

Helen Milburn presented her husband, Glenn; Bev Foughty of Dallas Center; Mr. and Mrs. Rex Pegram; and Rev. Charles Gilbert from Carlisle; and some members of her home lodge and district.

Jennie Allen presented her husband, Myron, and her family and other Rebekah Sisters.

Sister Vivian Nelson had no family, but introduced her delegate, Lola May Jenkins, of Clear Lake.

Sister Muriel Galvin introduced her daughter-in-law, Louise, and her delegate, Margaret Lyman, of Knoxville.

Brother Harold Evans, Grand Master, was introduced and pledged his support to President Mary and her program.

PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM for 1975-1976

THEME

"The Spirit of 76"

My session will be in the year our nation will be celebrating our Bicentennial Birthday of which Rebekah-Oddfellowship has played a great part. "The Spirit of 76" is also a painting of marching soldiers and has long served as a patriotic reminder of the sacrifices our country has had to make in the cause of Peace. As the three soldiers of old portray their march across the canvas of this old painting, may we be reminded of our obligations to our God, our Country, and to our Fraternal Order.

MOTTO

"A Star Spangled Year"

The majestic words of "God Bless America" always cause a quickening of the pulse, a stirring of the heart and a feeling of pride. So it should be with our Rebekah, Oddfellow work. It is my hope that this same enthusiasm can be generated this year, and we can have a greater pride in our home at Mason City. A stirring of the heart about our projects, and a quickening of the pulse in furthering the principles of Oddfellowship.

EMBLEM"The Dove"

The Dove has always been symbolic of Peace. Peace is essential to all lodges. We must work together with peace and harmony among members and with other lodges to obtain complete unity throughout the Order.

AIM

Let us unite together strengthening social and fraternal relationship between Oddfellows and Rebekahs and maintain the preservation of our Heritage.

SCRIPTURE

"Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." Psalms 133:1

PRAYER

O God, if there be in our hearts any evil feeling toward another, give the grace not even to attempt to continue our prayer, until we have put the evil away. We ourselves greatly need forgiveness. Then make us willing and eager to forgive, for Christ's sake. Amen.

—Effie Graham

ALTAR SERVICE

It is my sincere wish that we may conduct our altar service with the reverence, dignity and respect due to God, in our prayers and in the use of the Holy Bible. May I suggest the chaplain light "a blue candle, the flame of eternal peace" when she approached the altar, that she opens the Bible very slowly and reverently and that the members fold their hands (each in her own way) when the chaplain folds hers. May we do likewise in closing. May the chaplain close the Bible with reverence and then extinguish the candle before leaving the altar. May we make our Altar service more impressive to all.

GUIDE

Ritual, Bible, Code of general laws, Bible eternal flame of Peace and wisdom of our Past Presidents.

The Holy Bible has always been our guide and the teaching and assurance therein offer an abundance of comfort, joy and solace, to all who have faith. I also chose the Blue Eternal flame of Peace as one of my guides, as Eternal Flames have been used as symbols of peace for many years, and perhaps the one most famous is the Eternal Peace Light at Gettysburg, which I have been told is one of the stops on the United Nation Pilgrimage for Youth Tour. Ritual is our guide for our lodge meetings and takes priority over the Code and Constitution. Refer to the fine print often for guidance. The Code laws are passed by the Sovereign Grand Lodge and are to be used when decisions are required concerning the laws of our Order. The Wisdom of the Past Presidents is most needed for our guidance.

COLORS

The Red, White, Blue were chosen this year because they are our National Colors and represent freedom. Each color is also symbolic of an ideal that should be a part of each of us.

RED: Stands for courage. Support your beliefs and defend the rights of others.

WHITE: Stands for purity. Be pure in thought and actions, as a Rebekah is known by the way she speaks and acts.

BLUE: Represents Truth. Uphold that which is true; abhor that which is not true. Untruths can destroy a person, a family, an organization or even a country. We must protect ourselves from falsehoods.

FLOWERS

Red Rose — White Mums — Blue Asters

RED ROSES are dedicated to our Oddfellows and Junior Lodges who pave the way for us and defend us against all adversities.

BLUE ASTERS are dedicated to My Rebekah sisters and our Theta Rho girls for their love and faithfulness.

WHITE MUMS are the good that our great Order does for its members, the community and the world.

SYMBOL

"The Liberty Bell"

CONVENTION SONG

"Liberty Bell It's Time To Ring Again"

Liberty Bell it's time to ring again. Liberty Bell it's time to swing again. We're in the same sort of fix we were in Sev-en-ty six. And we are ready to mix and rally round you like we did before. Liberty Bell your voice is needed now, Liberty Bell, we'll hear your call one and all, Though your old and ther's a crack in you. Don't forget Old Glory's back in you. Oh Liberty Bell it's time to ring again.

COMMISSIONS

HONOR ROLLS ARE: given to all lodges having ten percent or more of their members holding current commissions in the Unwritten Work.

DISTRICT HONOR ROLLS: When every lodge in the District qualifies for a Lodge Honor Roll for Commissions, the District will be placed on this roll.

EFFIE GRAHAM HONOR ROLL: Every member who recited the Unwritten Work for the first time will be placed on this Honor Roll and his or her name will be printed in the Assembly Journal.

DELEGATES: Please send the names of those to whom you have issued Commissions to the Chairman of the Board of Instruction, Sister Mabel Naylor, 1406 - 5th Avenue, Belle Plaine, Iowa 52208.

ASSEMBLY APPOINTMENTS: It is an honor for a lodge to have a member that receives an Assembly appointment, also to have a Delegate or District Deputy President. Please give Special recognition to these Officers, have a Special Night and invite the neighboring lodges and other guests.

EMBLEM: Delegates, it is your duty to route the Emblem and send your schedule to the lodges in your District, and also ask each lodge to invite other lodges when the Emblem is presented.

SISTERS: Please study and memorize your charges when elected or appointed to office. PLEASE DO NOT COPY ANY PART OF THE RITUAL.

COMMUNICATIONS: Please read the President's letter, the news of the Home. The Hawkeye Oddfellow and items of interest printed in the International Rebekah News at your lodge meetings.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Noble Grands appoint a Community Service Chairman, to keep a record of the many activities your members participate in. Let other lodges know the good deeds you do as members of your community. Please send your report no later than September 1 to Edna Lockling, Logan, Iowa.

YOUTH

Many happy years have been spent together with our Youth. Let us remember to encourage and work with them. Invite them to all of your open meetings. Ask them to join our branches of the Order, and then put them to work in the degree and active committees. Their training should not be wasted. If you do not have a Junior Lodge or Theta Rho Club near you, then join in your Community Youth activities. Let's all support the United Nations Pilgrimage Program and all Projects of Youth groups remembering that helping hand that you extend to them can be far reaching.

PUBLICITY

We have a two fold purpose in good publicity. First to develop good will toward our Order. Second to let those outside the order know that we are really an up and coming organization by making our meetings interesting and telling the community about them. May we increase our attendance by bringing our non going members back to lodge. Noble Grands, appoint a really "Livewire" reporter, who will see that the community learns of the good deeds your lodge is doing. Please send your articles and pictures to my Chairman, Sister Emma Pedersen, 906 Clinton, Dunlap, Iowa 51529 by August 30, 1976.

MEMBERSHIP

In the year ahead efforts should be directed towards MEMBERSHIP, the retention of the members we have, the gaining of new ones, reinstatement of members dropped, the Education of all in the principles, purposes and projects of our Order. The expansion of our thinking and new horizons to encompass the whole human race, and development of Old and New Projects to make our Order more serviceable to our fellowman.

PROCEEDINGS OF

EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

This fund is a most rewarding one. It is our oldest International Project. What greater way to help build freedom for tomorrow, than to help our young people to get a higher Education. To do the work for which this fund was established we need your support and cooperation.

HOME FUND

The Odd Fellow Home in Mason City is the responsibility of every Odd Fellow and Rebekah and provides protection and security for the elderly. May I especially urge you to visit our home and see for yourself, just how your money is being used and the good that is being accomplished there. Your contributions to the Home Fund make it possible to maintain our Home in a manner we are all proud of. Please remember to take Home Fund collections at District Convention both afternoon and evening, Delegates Night, Emblem Presentation, Jubilee Nights and any other Special Meeting. These collections are to be sent to your President distinctly marked as to the meeting it was taken at, so proper credit will be given.

CONVENTIONS

Please send me your first and second choice of dates for your Convention as soon as possible to aid me in making my schedule to save time. I will do my best to give you your first choice. In return I am asking your cooperation if this proves to be impossible. Let's try to make our Conventions more informative, such as Schools of Instruction by planning a full Program of Exemplification and actual Ritualistic Work and Lodge Procedure. For this I thank you.

ROSE BOWL PARADE FLOAT

Each New Year's Day, we are all thrilled and pleased to view the Rose Bowl Parade and see the beautiful float sponsored by the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows of California. Since we are unable to have a part in preparing this float, and it does take many hours of labor, we can help them in a financial way. I am asking each lodge to contribute one dollar or more to this project as Rebekahs and Odd Fellows all over the United States and Canada receive recognition. Send your contributions to the Assembly President marked Rose Bowl Parade Float.

WORLD EYE BANK

Great credit is due the membership for what has been done in the past to establish this foundation. Here again, Odd Fellowship has taken another step toward service to humanity, eventual elimination of blindness and eye defects of all kind, is the aim and purpose. It needs your continual cooperation, your money, your time, and your talents to help develop new and exciting programs.

DRUG EDUCATION PROGRAM

Every lodge should support this program and work actively with local committees. This is one of the greatest and most frightening problems of our times and a very real challenge to our Order.

OUR FLAG

It is my desire to have all lodges include the Flag Ceremony in our Opening and Closing Ceremonies. I realize that our ritual states that it is optional. Please, if at all possible use the Flag Ceremony. (My preference is the so called New One) and let us remember to stand at attention when the flag is presented or retired (which is eyes straight ahead, arms at our sides, with nothing in the hands.) After the flag has been placed in the standard, I would like for all members to pledge allegiance to our flag followed by singing at least one verse of "The Star Spangled Banner."

SPECIAL NIGHTS

Delegate Night

Since the Assembly is early this year I'm sure that each lodge can be visited by the delegate before January 1, 1976 to give her report. Let's plan a Delegates Night early. Notify all your members of this meeting and encourage them to attend, as your Delegates report is the only way the majority of our members has to learn about the Assembly session, the legislation passed, the President's Program for the year. Let's make this meeting a special one and Delegates make your reports accurate, interesting and informative. Take a collection for the Home Fund and send to your President marked as Delegates Niaht.

Jubilee Night

Our visitations will be called Jubilee Nights this year. Plan a gay Jubilee Night and invite other lodges, your Assembly Officers elective and appointive, your Delegate and District Deputy President who live near you and please invite your brother Odd Fellow lodges to share this joyful evening with you. Please send me a report of your Jubilee meeting.

Odd Fellow Night

In April as near the 26th as possible, plan a night of fun to celebrate one hundred fifty seven years of Oddfellowship on the North American Continent. Invite both Rebekah and Odd Fellow lodges from nearby towns. Have a potluck supper and plan a real program. I'm sure the results will be most rewarding. Send a resume of your meeting to your President, with a Special Collection for the Home.

PRESIDENT'S AND GRAND MASTER

200 Club

To encourage fraternal visitation, visits to the sick and shut-ins and increase attendance in local lodges, we have created the President's and Grand Master's 200 Club. When a total of 200 points is reached, the lodge secretary, under the seal of the lodge, will notify the President or Grand Master and membership cards will be mailed back to the Secretary for distribution. Membership in this club will be earned by the following point system:

	Points
1. Attendance at your own lodge meetings	3
2. Telephone calls to shut-ins (Members of your own lodge)	3
3. Bringing a member to lodge	5
4. Attendance at other Rebekah Lodges, Theta Rho Clubs, Installations and Receptions of all branches, schools of Instruction, Homecoming, Conventions and any fraternal gatherings	5

5. For every 300 miles traveled attending any of the functions listed under Item Four	10
6. Visiting shut-in members of your own lodge	10
7. For every new member or reinstatement	100

SPECIAL PROJECTSBen and Betsy Country Store

Which will be held in various localities throughout the state. All lodges will be asked to participate in this project. Your support will be appreciated.

This brings to a close my year as your Assembly President. Your understanding and cooperation made this year possible. Without your help and guidance, I could not have fulfilled my obligations to the Rebekahs of Iowa. For this, I thank you.

Sincerely,

Mary M. Perry, President
Rebekah Assembly

Appendix

The 88th session of the Rebekah Assembly, I.O.O.F. of the State of Iowa, held in the hospitable city of Des Moines October 8, 9, 10, 1975 is now a matter of record in the history of our Order. From early morning until late at night our days and evenings were filled with activities but as the old saying goes "Folks are happiest when busy" and this proved to be true as everyone seemed to "Enjoy Themselves".

To the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Des Moines and to all who contributed to our pleasure and comfort we say "Thank You", our stay was most pleasant and we always look forward in meeting in your city.

We were very happy to welcome Sister Hazel Lou Wallace of Louisiana, President of the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies and Brother Corwin Havil, Wyoming Sovereign Grand Warden of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, they added much to our sessions.

As we take up the new year under the guiding hand of Sister Mary Perry and the Bicentennial year of our Nation, may we have a deeper feeling of Friendship toward one another, an abiding Love for our beautiful teachings and may Truth dominate all our actions, if we follow these teachings we cannot help but have "The Spirit of 76" and have "A Star Spangled Year" in Rebekah Oddfellowship.

Past President's Luncheon

The Past President's luncheon was held Tuesday noon in the Iowa room of Hotel Savory with twenty two answering roll call and Sister Odetta Mason as special guest and who was later taken in as a new member. Cards were signed by all present and sent to our three Past Presidents who were absent - Sisters Leone Stokka, Helen Nelson and Abby Calhoun.

Sister LaVada Peterson, President of the Past Presidents, presided over the business meeting. The tables were beautifull decorated and at each place we found a potted cactus and a souvenir spoon brought from Arizona, the Assembly President also gave each one a birthday spoon.

New officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President Hazel Lyons; vice president, Lucile Shanda; secretary-treasurer, Frances Simpson; staff captain, Bertha Wymore and assistant, Lucile Shanda.

Banquet and Reception

Tuesday evening the annual all member banquet was held in the ballroom of the Savory Hotel with Sister Alice Bricker as Mistress of Ceremonies. Dignitaries at the head table were introduced and a young man from the Friendship Club of Des Moines representing the Mayor welcomed all to the city and presented Grand Master Glen Irwin and Assembly President, Odetta Mason each a gold key to the City.

At eight o'clock a reception was held in the Terrace room with Sister Hallie Posnecker in charge. Elective Officers of all branches were escorted into the room and introduced. Past Officers were also introduced and at nine o'clock a dance in the Des Moines room closed the evening with everyone truly enjoying this part of the program.

PAST OFFICERS ASSOCIATION

A very large crowd attended the Past Officers banquet in the Des Moines room on Wednesday evening. Special guest was Brother Corwin Havil, Sovereign Grand Warden of Wyoming. Sister Hallie Posnecker, President presided at the business session and all officers were reelected.

Sister Bertha Wymore, Vice President, presented a memorial for all Past Officers who had answered the last roll call the past year.

REBEKAH DEGREE

Wednesday evening, Acme Rebekah Lodge No. 128 of Des Moines, opened lodge for the purpose of conferring the Rebekah Degree on five candidates. One candidate was a big surprise to our Assembly President as her son was one of the group to be Initiated, this was truly a surprise as she did not know he was even an Odd Fellow.

The Presidents staff of Sac City conferred the degree in a very fine manner on this class.

DELEGATES LUNCHEON

Thursday noon in the ballroom the Delegates luncheon was held, the tables were very pretty decorated in red, white and blue, our new President's colors for the Bicentennial year.

Sister Mary Perry presented her program for the coming year and gave her traveling emblem "the Dove" to the Delegates to take back to their Districts to travel this year.

All officers and committees for the coming year were introduced as well as the family of Sister Mary. Special guests were Sister Hazel Lou Wallace, President IARA and Brother Corwin Havil, Sovereign Grand Warden.

DORIS M. HUFFMAN ATKINSON, PAST PRESIDENT
Eulogy by Shirley Lubberden, Past President

"We can no longer clasp her hand,
No more her voice to hear.
To sense of touch and slight she's gone,
But to our hearts still near.
No passing years can separate,
Not even death can part
Who had in life been truly joined
In bondage of the heart."

It can be truly said of Sister Doris Huffman Atkinson that "to know her was to love her".

Her gracious, lovely presence has passed from our sight, her joyous greetings and gentle words shall be heard no more, yet she is not really gone, as the influence of her charm, dignity, and the beauty of her personality radiate a sweetness and joyousness of life, felt by family and friends alike, leaving a beautiful memory for those she touched, as Mother, Grandmother, friend, and as a member of this Rebekah Order.

Doris Mae Love was born August 9, 1903, near Nashua, Iowa, in Chickasaw County, the daughter of Isaac and Matilda Love. She spent her childhood near Orchard, Iowa, and Charles City, Iowa, graduating from Charles City High School in 1921. While attending school she worked at the local Ice Cream Company, and after graduation taught school in the rural area.

In 1922 she was united in marriage with William M. Huffman at Charles City, Iowa, where they lived a short time before moving to Mason City, Iowa, their home for thirty years. Two children were born, Daughter Lucile Elaine Huffman and Son Robert Dale Huffman. Sister Doris and Brother Bill owned and operated an Insurance Agency in Mason City for many years, and managed P.M. Park at Clear Lake, Iowa, for fifteen years, moving to P.M. Park from Mason City. They belonged to the Congregational Church in Mason City.

Sister Doris joined Queen Rebekah Lodge No. 106 at Mason City, Iowa, April 5, 1929. She also belonged to the L.A.P.M., Ladies Encampment, and United Commercial Travelers at Mason City, Iowa. While active in the insurance business she belonged to the Mason City Women's Club.

Sister Doris was very active in Queen Rebekah Lodge, holding various offices and becoming a Past Noble Grand. She was untiring in her efforts for the Order. No matter where she was asked to help, she was always willing to serve to the best of her ability. She advanced into Assembly work and served on several Assembly committees. All of the Huffman Family were members of the Rebekahs or Odd Fellows. Sister Doris was pleased to see her Mother and Daughter join Queen Rebekah Lodge together, when Lucille became eighteen years of age.

Sister Doris was elected Vice President of the Rebekah Assembly at Davenport, Iowa, in October, 1942, to fill the vacancy resulting from the death of Lillian Snyder of Storm Lake, Iowa. She was installed President at Des Moines, Iowa, in October, 1943, for the 1943-1944 term. Her program stressed membership and the endowment fund, while her project was beautifying and erecting a memorial for the Memorial Park Cemetery at the Odd Fellows' home at Mason City. Her Motto was "Service Secures Success" and her Slogan, "Keep the Lodge lights burning, so there will be no blackout in Fraternity".

Rebekah Oddfellowship was a big part of Sister Doris' life, and she and Brother Bill worked together many hours, days, weeks and years, for the good of the Order. Brother Bill was a big help to Sister Doris during her years as Vice President and President of the Rebekah Assembly, and likewise Sister Doris was much help to Brother Bill when he served as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Iowa In 1948-1949. They traveled many miles together and were very devoted to their work.

The Odd Fellows' Home was dear to Sister Doris' heart and while serving as President she tried to visit all the residents of the Home. There were no women trustees for the Home prior to October 23, 1953, at which time Sister Doris and Georgia Quigley, another Past President, were elected to represent the Rebekah Assembly in an advisory capacity with the Home Board. The following year Sister Doris was elected for two years and Past President, Ada Woods, for one year. Their assistance was valued greatly, and two women trustees became a permanent part of the Board. In October, 1960, she declined re-election to the Board.

Brother Bill passed away in March, 1956, and Sister Doris continued to manage P. M. Park for a time.

In 1966 Sister Doris married W. E. Atkinson of Fergus Falls, Minnesota, where she made her home until her death. Because of her health in recent years, she wasn't too active in the lodge and Assembly, but her thoughts and interests were always there.

She died in Fergus Falls, October 16, 1974, at the age of seventy-one years. Funeral services were conducted by Reverend Emery L. Wallace at Grade United Methodist Church in Fergus Falls, October 18th, and by Dr. Lloyd Meyer at the Odd Fellows' Home in Mason City on October 19th. Queen Rebekah Lodge was in charge of the Rebekah Service at the Home. She was buried beside her beloved husband, Brother Bill Huffman, in the Memorial Park (I.O.O.F.) Cemetery at the Odd Fellows' Home in Mason City.

In addition to her first husband, Brother Bill Huffman, she was preceded in death by their son, Robert; her parents, one sister and three brothers.

She is survived by her husband, W. E. Atkinson, Fergus Falls; daughter and son-in-law, Lucile and Ares Dinesen, and granddaughter, Debra Doris Dinesen, all of Harlan, Iowa; also grandchildren, Robert Dale Huffman, Jr., William Mark Huffman, and Cindy Lynn Huffman, all of Mason City, Iowa; as well as other relatives and many friends.

The following words express the love of all who knew Sister Doris M. Huffman Atkinson.

"She whom we loved went out of sight,
But never out of mind;
For she still is cherished in the hearts
Of those she left behind.
Loving and kind in all her ways
Upright and just to the end of her days;
Sincere and true in heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind."

EULOGY FOR GLENN R. PARMLEY, PAST GRAND TREASURER,
GRAND ENCAMPMENT OF IOWA
By Clifford Wright, Grand Senior Warden

Each year at our Sessions we find that some of our good friends and members have answered the last roll call of their lodges and have been called Home by our Heavenly Father.

Today we pay our respects to the memory of Glenn R. Parmley, Past Grand Treasurer of the Grand Encampment of Iowa.

Glenn was born March 8, 1905, and passed away suddenly January 24, 1975. He attended the Atlantic schools. Although plumbing was his life work, he had been a substitute rural mail carrier.

He was united in marriage to Esther Olson on January 28, 1931. They lived their entire married life in Atlantic. Besides his wife, Esther, he is survived by one son, Ronald Parmley, two daughters, Mrs. David (Janet) Dreyer, and Mrs. Phyllis Anderson and two grandsons and six granddaughters.

He was an active member of the First United Methodist Church and the Methodist Men in Atlantic. He had served as president and at the time of his death he was the secretary of the Men's Organization.

Glenn was a very dedicated Odd Fellow, taking an active part in the annual sessions and the different branches of which he was a member. He was a Past Grand of his Subordinate Lodge and a Past Chief Patriarch of the Encampment in Atlantic. He was a Past Captain of his Canton in Clarinda and a member of the Rebekah Lodge. He was responsible for at least 50 men and women joining the several branches of the Order.

He was an avid sports enthusiast, helping whenever and wherever he was needed at all the school's sports events.

Glenn is greatly missed by all who knew him,—in the work-a-day world and in the lodge room.

He was an Odd Fellow

He believed in the Fatherhood of God, and the Brotherhood of man;

He believed in Friendship, Love and Truth as basic guides to the ultimate destiny of all mankind;

He believed his home, his church, his lodge and his community deserved his best work, his modest pride, his earnest faith, and his deepest loyalty, as he performed his duty, "to visit the sick, relieve the distress, bury the dead and educate the orphan" and as he worked with others to build a better world because, In spirit and in truth, he was grateful to his creator, faithful to his Country and Fraternal to his Fellow-men:

He was an Odd Fellow.

EULOGY FOR MAJ. GEN. (R) CHARLES G. WINGET PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER OF IOWA
By Maj. Gen. H. E. Clark Dept. Com.

Each year as we meet we note the absence of familiar faces, and our hearts are saddened by the passing of dear ones who have been called to their Heavenly Home. Today we pause to pay tribute of love and respect to one who labored faithfully in all branches of our beloved Order.

"A door swings silently and opens when a loved one slips away,
Slips quietly from life's shadow into a bright eternal day,
Where earthly cares are forgotten, and pain shall be no more,
Where peace and love is waiting for God has opened wide the door."

Maj. Gen. (R) Charles G. Winget was born in Wichita, Kansas, December 25, 1894, and left our Ranks on March 4, 1975.

Charlie, as we all knew him joined Montezuma Lodge No. 74, February 2, 1917, where he soon became a Past Grand. When he moved to Des Moines he transferred to University Lodge No. 256, where he served as Financial Secretary for many years.

He was a member of Ebenezer Encampment No. 20 where he served as Chief Patriarch and Financial Scribe.

Charlie was a member of Canton Pioneer No. 3. He was a willing worker and served in nearly every office. He was the Department Commander of Iowa for four years with the rank of Major General. The highest honor bestowed upon him was the Grand Decoration of Chivalry.

He was also Treasurer of the Polk County Joint Youth Committee, was an active Rebekah, and a Senior Member of Hawkeye Junior Lodge No. 11.

Brother Charlie was active in all branches of the Order and seldom missed a meeting. He loved to hunt and fish, which he really enjoyed to the end. He was a good companion, a loyal friend, and a dedicated Odd Fellow. We will miss him very much.

Major General Retired Charles G. Winget was laid to rest with a full Patriarch Militant Service in Chapel Hills Gardens, Des Moines, Iowa March 7, 1975.

He was survived by a son, Kenneth Winget of Des Moines, and a daughter, Mrs. Leota Duncan of Cedar Falls, seven grandchildren, and six great grandchildren.

"Out from its earthly dwelling
Another spirit has flown,
Up to a place Eternal.
Around the great white Throne.
Thus our beloved brother
Has passed from earth away.
To join the ranks of others,
Who are passing day by day."

EULOGY FOR J. CRAIG DUNLAVY, PAST GRAND PATRIARCH, GRAND ENCAMPMENT OF IOWA
By Carl Eybers, Past Grand Patriarch

Ever mindful that Odd Fellowship teaches a belief in immortality, that death is a brief parting until we too receive the call from the Great Grand Master, we meet to honor the memory of our departed members, to recall their devotion to the Order, their love of their fellow man and to cherish the knowledge that our lives have been enriched by having been associated with them.

J. Craig Dunlavy was born in Sioux City, Iowa, February 19, 1891. He passed away in the city of his birth, March 26, 1975. He was the only child of Dr. John Craig Dunlavy, an active Odd Fellow and well known physician, and Emily (Tinsley) Dunlavy. Brother Dunlavy attended Sioux City schools. As a young man he worked as an automobile salesman and later devoted his time to family business ventures. On July 19, 1929, he married Cora Hazel Steffan, in Sioux City, who survives him, as does a son, John Craig Dunlavy III, of Omaha, Neb., a daughter, Mrs. Marjery Christianson, of St. Paul, Minn., and two grandchildren.

He joined the Odd Fellows January 6, 1919, and subsequently became a member of the Encampment, Rebekah and Patriarch Militant branches. The Encampment became his 'first love' and during his active years had the largest membership in the jurisdiction. He organized degree teams that conferred degrees throughout the state, worked hard to promote the growth of the Endowment Fund and during the 'Depression Years' organized a Relief Committee to provide food and fuel for destitute members.

Brother Dunlavy was elected Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Iowa for 1938-1939 term and served as Grand Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1941 and 1942. His term as Grand Patriarch came during a time of economic depression and they were very difficult times for everyone. He is best remembered for his efforts to promote Encampment Odd Fellowship and keep it financially sound during a severe economic depression.

He played an active roll in the Grand Encampment until his failing health prevented him from attending the sessions he enjoyed so much.

Active in community affairs, a member of several service clubs, he was also a member of the Masonic Lodge, a 32nd degree Mason active in the Scottish Rite bodies and a member of the Shrine.

We can truly say of J. Craig Dunlavy, as I hope will be said of us, that he was an Odd Fellow indeed.

God calls our loved ones,
But we lose not wholly
What He has given;
They live on earth
In thought and deed,
As truly as in His heaven.

RANK AND FILE

By Otto M. Eckley, Grand Warden, Grand Lodge of Iowa

We pause in the midst of our busy session to refresh our memories of the departed friends and members who have finished their course here below and are called to the beautiful Isle of somewhere.

To the promised land our friends have gone, to the land of perfect rest. Though the past is gone they will still live on, to us all sweet and wonderful in our memory.

In John 14: verse 1 to 4, we read: Let not your heart be troubled; Ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my fathers house are many mansions, if it were not so I would have told you, I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself, that where I am there ye may be also.

This gives us hope that someday we may join these loved ones who have preceded us to the great Heavenly Lodge above.

We lovingly recall their deeds of kindness and emulate their virtues which marked them as true friends, and good Oddfellows.

Memories are the strains of a song that lingers on,
Memories are the treasures that mean more than riches do;
And Memories of our dear ones will console and comfort you.

The Brothers who have departed for a well earned better life will be missed by all of us. The tasks they performed for us, the friendly handclasp and greeting, the wise council they shared with us, will all be missed by those they left behind, but the memories of them will dwell forever green in our hearts.

Should you go first and I remain to walk the road alone,
I'll live in memories garden, dear with happy days we've known.
In spring I'll wait for roses red, when faded, the lilacs blue.
In early fall when brown leaves fall, I catch a glimpse of you.
Should you go first, and I remain, for battles to be fought.
Each thing you've touched along the way will be a hallowed spot
I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile, though blindly I may grope.
The memory of your helping hand, will buoy me on with hope.
Should you go first and I remain, one thing I'll have you do.
Walk slowly, down that long long path, for soon I'll follow you.
I want to know each step you take, so I may take the same.
For someday down that lonely road you'll hear me call your name.
I would like to close this with a prayer.

Our heavenly Father, once more we pause in our daily lives to spend a little while in memory of our Brothers and Sisters, who meet with us no more. We thank the heavenly Father, for these precious memories, and the influence their lives have left with us. Grant that comfort and understanding may be given to those who feel most keenly, the loneliness and loss by broken ties. Let each broken link in our fraternal chain draw us into closer bonds of Friendship, Love, Truth and Universal Justice in our order, and in the lives of others. And now unto thy hands we commend ourselves and all those dear to us.

AMEN

DEPARTED SISTERS

By Helen Milburn, Warden Rebekah Assembly of Iowa

Sisters and Brothers:

Once again we come to the most sacred part of our Session - The Memorial Hour - It should not make us sad, rather it should inspire us and fill us with hope - The history of the lives of our departed Sisters is indeed precious in the sight of Him above. No one having entered within our sacred circles and assumed our Obligations can ever leave this earth without leaving an imprint on the hearts of those with whom they came in contact, and every service they performed for their fellowman is recorded by our Heavenly Father. In no other way can we pay more loving tribute to those we honor here today than in continued service in our Order. Helping one another, loving one another, and loving our neighbors as ourselves. We shall miss them in our daily lives and in our lodge meetings, where each one filled her allotted place, and to those who will miss them most of all, we extend our deepest sympathy and love. The influence of their lives, the work they have accomplished, and the good deeds they performed are incentives for us to enrich and ennable our lives that we too may leave a rich heritage. Too often we save our kindly words for the eulogy of our sisters and brothers and friends when they can no longer be encouraged to nobler work and kinder deeds. Reverence to the dead is best known as "service to the living" thus may the achievements of our departed sisters be the inspiration by which we climb to greater heights.

"Death has a wonderful mission, Though it robs us of those we love, It lifts our hearts from our surroundings to long for that meeting above. No matter how heavy the burden, no matter how great the despair, doesn't Heaven seem nearer and dearer, to know our loved ones are there."

Report of Home Trustees

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and of the Rebekah Assembly:

The members of the Board of Trustees of the Iowa Odd Fellows and Orphans Home submit to the members of the Order a report of this past year, and the budget for the year beginning August 1, 1975 to July 31, 1976. We hope that each member will read this carefully.

GENERAL SURVEY

The Board of Trustees of the Iowa Odd Fellows and Orphans Home at Mason City is composed of five (5) members: three (3) members elected by the Grand Lodge for a term of three (3) years, and two (2) members elected to represent the Rebekah Assembly for a term of two (2) years. At the present time those serving as Trustees are: Wilford Ward, P.G.M., of Norway, Chairman; Tom McCoy, P.G.P., of Indianola, Vice Chairman; Sam Cuvelier, P.G.M., of Janesville; Marjorie Hefte, P.P., of Britt; and Alice Clark, P.G.M., OF Stuart, Secretary. Helen Nelson, P.P., of Britt, who has served as a Board Member for several years, was voted an Honorary Member. We each strive to perform the duties required to the best of our knowledge, and we hope with satisfaction to the membership.

The Board meets the last Tuesday of each month, and a special meeting may be called when necessary. Visitors are always welcome.

We were happy to have the following as our guests this year: Glen Irwin, Grand Master and Representative of the Executive Committee; A. M. Black, P.S.G.M. and Representative of the Endowment Committee; Ivan Allen, P.G.M. and Representative of the Finance Committee; Berle J. Starr, G. Sec. and Representative of the Advisory Board; Harold Evans, D.G.M.; Mary Perry, Reb. Ass. V.P.; the Rebekah Advisory Board; Lylas Haydon, P.P., and Edna Ward, P.P.; Dorothy Wright, G.H.P.; Flora Evans, wife of the D.G.M.; and Virgil Bowers, P.G.M. and Chairman of Homes Committee.

The Iowa Odd Fellows and Orphans Home is a member of the International Association of Odd Fellows Homes.

The Open House at the Home was Saturday, March 15th. This was well attended, and the program was interesting and instructive. The next Open House will be Saturday, March 13, 1976.

The Rev. Luvern Harcy conducts the Sunday morning services in the Chapel. He is also happy to extend his help and comfort to the residents when he is needed.

The Independent Medical Group of Drs. Tice, Chang, Wesley, and Kirkham is employed by the Home. One of these doctors calls at the Home each Tuesday to administer whatever medical care is needed. When residents need hospital care they are taken to Mercy Hospital in Mason City.

The Activities Room on the fourth floor is open five days a week from 8:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. The residents make many items which can be purchased there. Resident interest has been increased this year through more entertainment, activities, therapy, and the Reality, Reorientation Program.

Any Odd Fellow or Rebekah in good standing for a period of ten (10) consecutive years in this jurisdiction prior to application, or a widow of an Odd Fellow in good standing at the time of his death (whether she is a Rebekah or not), may be admitted to the Home upon such terms and conditions as the Trustees of the Home may seem equitable. All applications for admission to the Home shall be made on blank forms obtained from a member of the Board of Trustees. Application for admission to the Home shall be made by the lodge in which the applicant holds his or her membership.

Financial arrangements should be made before entering the Home: (1) Those who have sufficient funds may enter on contract; or (2) Those with assets may transmit all of them to Iowa Odd Fellows and Orphans Home, then the Home will assume all responsibility; or (3) Those without sufficient funds may apply for Government Care Programs.

At the present time Custodial Care is $200.00 per month, and Nursing Care is $11.00 per day. This rate will be adjusted by inflation or extra care needed for the resident.

To be a Licensed Home for Custodial Care and Nursing Care we must be constantly improving to pass State and Federal Inspection Laws. Those who have inspected the past year are: State Department of Health; Life Safety Fire Marshall inspection; Care Review Committee; Occupational Safety and Hazard Act; Intermediate Care Facilities Program-Federal; and Medical Review Team Federal Care Program.

This year 89 new fire doors have been installed. The ceilings on second floor have been lowered and the Nurse Call Light has been installed. This was done at the cost of $17,260.00 to Donald L. Gilbert Co., Inc. and $7,250.00 to Blazek Electric. Also, other minor improvements have been made.

ENCAMPMENT AND AUXILIARY PROJECT

The addition of new folding chairs has improved the appearance of the Chapel. The cart may also be used as a coat and hat rack which will be very useful. We are very thankful for these.

Time to close the ledger for another year, then hurry and write something that is only read by a few. So this year we will relinquish one page of our report to inflation. Thanks for all the favors and work to the residents of the Home.

Richard and Dorothy Porter
Superintendent and Matron

Homes Committee Report

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of Iowa, IOOF:

I'll start with the farm. The corn and beans look as good or better than any other in the area. We have only a few cattle, just enough to furnish the beef needed at our Home. The cattle are the only livestock on the farm.

The yards around the Home show that they are being well kept. A few elm trees are dying and are being removed. We should thank our Brothers of the past for planting a variety of trees. All except the elm look real good.

The former children's building, which is now being remodeled into apartments has a good roof and the building looks like it would last for years with little upkeep. The apartments in the east portion of the building are completed. They look very livable and are all occupied. It is my opinion that the entire building should be converted to apartments. The office could be moved to the lower level where there is adequate room. The Porters, along with our Homes Trustees are doing a wonderful job for us in looking after the Home. Everyone I talked to, older residence, new residence and the help all had only nice things to say about them. I would like to remind you that for years we had financial troubles at our Home. We no longer have that. I think we should do everything possible to keep Richard and Dorothy Porter as long as they want the job. The Porters did not mention this, but I think we should build a real nice home for our Superintendent and family to live in on the grounds, not too far from the other buildings, but far enough to give them the privacy a family deserves. The house should be one that the Porters, the Odd Fellows, and the Rebekahs, would be real proud of. The house could be financed by a small increase in our per-capita tax, from projects, and from donations for that purpose. I believe now is the time to do it.

Thank you Grand Master, for giving me the opportunity to observe and express my opinion on the Homes.

Fraternally submitted by,

E. Virgll Bowers, P.G.M., Coralville
Chairman, Homes Committee

REPORT OF THE ENDOWMENT COMMITTEE
(For detailed report, see Grand Secretary's report)

As Chairman of the Endowment Fund Committee, I submit the following report:

Our primary effort has been directed on income to assist in the operations of our Homes. We are happy to report, even with falling interest rates, an income for this year of over $72,000.00 — a new annual high, with an increase of $1,245.00 over 1974.

Our secondary effort was to remove some of the long-term losers from our stock portfolio. Some progress was made and the year ended with a net realized capital gain of over $900.00.

With the economic and political world turmoil, coupled with destructive drought, we will do our best working for more income in 1976.

As stated last year, it is your Committee's hope to announce at the 1976 Session of these Grand Bodies that the Endowment Fund has reached the ONE MILLION DOLLAR GOAL. From last year, the fund has advanced from over $745,000.00 to almost $927,000.00. Most of this gain came from the sale of the Nelson farm and the Pearl Bonhom bequest. We are sorry to report, voluntary contributions averaged about seven cents per member. To those who gave for others, our Order wishes to thank you.

The Endowment Fund needs over $73,000.00 to reach the ONE MILLION DOLLAR GOAL. With the help of each member, such can be done. May we suggest your consideration of one or more of the following:

1. Those to whom the financial world has been good, we invite your attention to the "Special Honor Roll for 1975-1976"; Whereas, Instead of bequeathing $100.00 to the Endowment Fund as a memorial, said amount be given now -- so you can see it work. We express the members' appreciation to the six who made such a gift in 1975, Which accounted for 41 percent of the 1975 contributions.
2. Each Brother and Sister save just one penny per day (pennies for humanity) and contribute it to the fund for 1976 or give more if you feel you should.

Whatever course any may choose to follow, let us remember, some of those who make a contribution of $2.00 in our Nation's Bi-centennial Year, could be making a greater sacrifice than those who give more.

Fraternally and Sincerely submitted,
A. M. Black,
Chairman Endowment Fund Committee
